

twang, jangle, clang, clatter, roar, hubbub, blast, blare, boom, whisper, murmur, hum, rustle, buzz, purr, splash, sigh, moan, tinkle, ripple, bubble, plop, crack, snap, smack, clap, thud, rap, tap, knock, click, crash, pop, slam, bang, thump, toot, hoot, rumble, rattle, drone, patter, clink, jingle, hiss, whiz, swish, wheeze, fizz, creak, yelp, whoop, howl, scream, screech, squeak, whine, whinny, snore, snort, grunt, bark, twitter, yap, growl, bleat, croak, gobble, quack, chirp, wail, ring, ping, whoosh, flutter.

Session 1:

Say the words – either “straight” or with expression and meaning.

Session 2:

Generate the type of sound the words represent

Session 3:

Free expression [spoken; dramatic; “noises” ...] using the list below for sources of inspiration:

Titter, flap, flitter, jitter, yabble, yatter, splutter, burp, fart, belch, snivel, guffaw, mew, meow, smash, jingle, galumph, giggle, snigger, clip, clop, clippety, cloppety, clip-clop, miaou, splat snickersnack, burble.